APPLICABILITY OF REGULATIONS FOR THE TIME BEING IN FORCE

Notwithstanding the integrated nature of a course spread over more than one academic year, the regulations in force at the time a student joins a course shall hold good only for the examinations held during or at the end of the academic year. Nothing in these regulations shall be deemed to debar the University from amending the regulations subsequently and the amended regulations, if any, shall apply to all students whether old or new.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTINUOUS INTERNAL ASSESSMENT (20%) FOR REGULAR STUDENTS OF POST-GRADUATE COURSES OF ANCIENT INDIAN HISTORY, CULTURE & ARCHAEOLOGY (Semester System)

(Effective from the First Year Admission for the Academic Session 2007-2008)

1. The Syndicate has approved the following guidelines, mode of testing and evaluation including Continuous Internal Assessment of students :

   (i) Terminal Evaluation : 80 %

   (ii) Continuous Assessment : 20 %

   (iii) Continuous Assessment may include written assignment, snap tests, participation in discussions in the class, term papers, attendance etc.

   (iv) In order to incorporate an element of Continuous Internal Assessment of students, the Colleges/Departments will conduct one written test and one snap test as quantified below :

(a)	Written Test	:	25 (reduced to 5)
(b)	Snap Test	:	25 (reduced to 5)
(c)	Participation in Class discussion	:	15 (reduced to 3)
(d)	Term Paper	:	25 (reduced to 5)

History of Buddhism

UNIT - II
History of Vaishnavism

UNIT - III
History of Shaivism

UNIT - IV
Minor cults: Shakta, Saura, Karttikeya, Ganesa

Pedagogy of the course work:

Certain common themes run through the entire course – how processes of conflict and integration bring about change and modifications in a particular religious tradition. The course is thematic and designed to advance enquiry into aspects which are intimately connected with facets of Indian history itself. Since religion has close association with image worship, class lectures are often aided by visuals.

SEMESTER-III

Group - A : Archaeology

Paper-I : Prehistoric Archaeology

Max. Marks: 100
Theory: 60 Marks
Practical: 20 marks
Internal Assessment: 20 Marks
Time: 3 Hours

Objectives:

This course is a survey of the pre-historic background of India from the Palaeolithic to the Neolithic Period. The chief focus of the course is on the problems of interpretation of archaeological data.

Note:

1. The Paper-setter is required to set 9 questions in all in theory paper and the candidates are required to attempt five questions in all.
2. The first question, which is compulsory, shall be short answer type containing 15 short questions spread over the entire syllabus to be answered in 25 to 30 words each. The candidates are required to answer any ten short questions i.e. of 2 marks each (2 x 10 = 20).
3. The rest of the paper shall contain 4 units. The entire syllabus has been divided into 4 units. Each unit shall have two questions and the candidate shall be given internal choice, i.e. the candidate shall attempt one question from each unit. Each question will carry 10 marks.
4. The practical paper shall comprise of Field Diary, Drawing, Written test and Viva-Voce.

Pedagogy of the course work:

Class lectures are accompanied by field trips to important archaeological sites. In the above paper, there is an unqualified concern with the geographically multilinear character of the subcontinents archaeological development. Throughout the discussion on the course of India's evolution from the Palaeolithic stage to the Neolithic, geography, i.e. the context of land, forms a major backdrop of analysis.

UNIT - I

1. Introduction to Prehistory: Scope and aims
2. Evolutionary history of Man
3. Stone Age technologies: Tool types of the Palaeolithic, Mesolithic and Neolithic Cultures.

UNIT - II

Palaeolithic Cultures: Regional distribution, Stratigraphy and Cultural context. Palaeolithic Cultures of Northern, Western, Central, Eastern and Southern India

UNIT-III

1. Mesolithic Cultures: Various sites in the North, West, Central and East India like Bhimbetka, Baghor-I, Chopani-Mando, Birbhanpur, Sarai-Nahar-Rai, Langhnaj, Adamgarh, Baghor-II etc.
2. Prehistoric Rock Art: Cave and Rock Shelters in India like Bhimbetka

UNIT-IV

Beginnings of food production: Agricultural communities in North-West India from Baluchistan to Kashmir; Early farming communities in Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Orissa and North-Eastern States. Ash mounds and other Neolithic sites of Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and Andhra Pradesh.

Paper-II : Archaeological Methods, Techniques and Early Historic Archaeology.

Max. Marks: 100
Theory: 60 Marks
Practical: 20 Marks
Internal Assessment: 20 Marks
Time: 3 Hours

Objectives:

The broad objective of the course is to introduce students to the basics of archaeology; to familiarise them with the basic theoretical issues of field methods and to impart field training.

Note:

1. The Paper-setter is required to set 9 questions in all in theory paper and the candidates are required to attempt five questions in all.
2. The first question, which is compulsory, shall be short answer type containing 15 short questions spread over the entire syllabus to be answered in 25 to 30 words each. The candidates are required to answer any ten short questions i.e. of 2 marks each (2 x 10 = 20).
3. The rest of the paper shall contain 4 units. The entire syllabus has been divided into 4 units. Each unit shall have two questions and the candidate shall be given internal choice, i.e. the candidate shall attempt one question from each unit. Each question will carry 10 marks.
4. The practical paper shall comprise of Field Diary, Drawing. Written test and Viva-Voce.

Unit-I: Definition of Field Archaeology, its Aim and Scope. Development of Archaeology in India and Europe

Unit-II: Relationship of Archaeology with Physical and Social Sciences

Unit-III: Methods of Conservation of Monuments and Preservation of Antiquities

Unit-IV: Methods of Dating: Relative and Absolute or Chronometric Dating methods.

Pedagogy of the course work:

Since one of the aims of the course is to impart theoretical as well as practical training to the students, students are encouraged to handle genuine archaeological artifacts in the class. Besides, visits to the departmental museum will help the students to get acquainted with excavated material.

Group-B : Epigraphy and Numismatics

Paper-I: Palaeography and Epigraphy

Max. Marks: 100
Theory: 50 Marks
Practical: 30 Marks
Internal Assessment: 20 Marks
Time: 3 Hours

Objectives:

In order to reconstruct ancient Indian history from the original sources, a study of ancient Indian inscriptions is a must. For this purpose, the knowledge of ancient scripts of India is essential. The bulk of ancient Indian inscriptions are in Brahmi script and its offshoots. As such the objective of this paper is to prepare students of ancient Indian history, culture and archaeology to use original sources for a deep and correct understanding of historical facts.

NOTE:

Theory Paper :

1. The theory paper shall be of 2 hours duration and shall carry 50 marks. Practical paper shall be of 30 marks. 20 marks shall be for internal assessment.
2. The paper setter is required to set 7 questions in all. The candidates are required to attempt 4 questions in all.
3. The first question, which is compulsory, shall be short answer type containing 15 short questions spread over the entire syllabus. Candidates are to attempt any 10 short questions in 25-30 words each, each short question shall carry 2 marks i.e. 20 marks for the whole question.
4. The rest of the paper shall contain three units. Each unit shall have two questions and the candidates shall be given internal choice i.e. the candidate shall attempt one question from each unit - 3 in all. Each question shall carry 10 marks.

UNIT - I

(a) Origin and Development of Brahmi Script up to 650 A. D.

(b) Delhi-Topara Pillar Inscriptions of Ashoka.

UNIT - II

(a) Girnar Rock Edicts of Ashoka Vols. I, II, XII, XIII.

(b) Sarnath Pillar Edict of Ashoka.

UNIT - III

(a) Besnagar Pillar Inscription of Heliodorus.

(b) Ayodhya Stone Inscription of Dhanadeva.

(c) Nasik Cave Inscription of Queen Balasri.

Practical Paper:

1. The Practical paper shall be of one hour duration and shall carry 30 marks.
2. The paper-setter is required to set two questions. Both shall be compulsory.
3. The first question shall carry two plates of the inscriptions as given in syllabus for decipherment into Nagari/Roman script. The candidates shall have an internal choice i.e. they shall decipher one of the given inscriptions. The question shall carry 20 marks.
4. The second question shall contain two passages from the inscriptions in syllabus in Nagari/Roman script. The candidates shall be asked to transliterate one of the given passages into the original script. It shall carry 10 marks.

PRACTICAL PAPER:

Inscriptions for decipherment and transliteration

(a) Delhi-Topara Pillar Inscriptions of Ashoka, Nos. I to IV.

(b) Girnar Rock Edicts of Ashoka Nos. I, II, XII.

(c) Sarnath Pillar Edict of Ashoka.

(d) Besnagar Pillar Inscription of Heliodorus.

(e) Ayodhya Stone Inscription of Dhanadeva.

Pedagogy of the course work:

The students should be fully acquainted with the reading/decipherment of ancient inscriptions listed in the syllabus. In addition, they should also be taught to critically analyse the palaeography of the inscriptions, origin and development of Brahmi script in India and a detailed study of the contents of the inscriptions, listed in the syllabus, in historical context. 25% of the total classroom teaching should be devoted to the decipherment of the inscriptions in syllabus. A one-week fieldwork tour to study some of the inscriptions included in the syllabus in situ should be held.

Max. Marks: 100
Theory: 60 Marks
Practical: 20 Marks
Internal Assessment: 20 Marks
Time: 3 Hours

Objectives:

The broad objective of the course is to do three things: to inform the students about the major excavations of India, to familiarize them to the theoretical basis of field methods and to impart field training.

Note:

1. The Paper-setter is required to set 9 questions in all in theory paper and the candidates are required to attempt five questions in all.
2. The first question, which is compulsory, shall be short answer type containing 15 short questions spread over the entire syllabus to be answered in 25 to 30 words each. The candidates are required to answer any ten short questions i.e. of 2 marks each (2 x 10 = 20).
3. The rest of the paper shall contain 4 units. The entire syllabus has been divided into 4 units. Each unit shall have two questions and the candidate shall be given internal choice, i.e. the candidate shall attempt one question from each unit. Each question will carry 10 marks.
4. The practical paper shall comprise of Field Diary, drawing. Written test and viva-voce.

Pedagogy of the course work:

Since one of the aims of the course is to impart theoretical as well as practical training to the students, students are encouraged to handle genuine archaeological artifacts in the class. Besides, visits to the departmental museum would help the students to get familiarised with excavated material.

Unit-I
Techniques of Exploration, Prospection and Surveying; Different Techniques of Survey; Sub surface Detection Procedures.

Unit-II
Techniques of Archaeological Excavation and Recording: Test Pits and Trenches; Vertical and Horizontal Excavations; Analysis and Interpretation of Data.
