SE-C- III-Research Methodology in Social Sciences

Paper III – Research Methodology in Social Sciences Credits-4

(A) Course Objectives:

A course in Research Methodology is envisaged with the idea of providing skills in undertaking independent research programmes. The students will be introduced to various techniques commonly used by Social Scientific Research. This kind of eclectic design of course is felt necessary, keeping the background of the students besides the inter-disciplinary nature of the subject matter, social exclusion and inclusion. An investigation into the subject at times requires triangulation of various methods of data collection and analysis.

(B) Pedagogy of the Course Work:

80 per cent of the Course Content would be delivered through Lecture Method and rest 20 per cent would comprise of Term Paper/Assignment, Presentations, Book Reviews, Thesis Reviews and classroom participation.

(C) Instructions for Paper Setters and Candidates:

- The maximum marks for the paper will be 100. The question paper will be of 80 marks and internal assessment of 20 marks.
- Time allowed will be 3 hours.
- There shall be 8 questions in all.
- The paper shall contain 4 units. Each unit shall have two questions and the candidate shall attempt one question i.e. the candidate has to attempt four questions in all. Each question will carry 20 marks (4x20 = 80 marks).

Unit I

Philosophy of Social Sciences.
Approaches to Social Science Research: Quantitative and Qualitative Interdisciplinary Research in Social Science: Approaches
Selection and Formulation of Research Problem under Quantitative and Qualitative

Unit II

Hypothesis: Formulation and Testing
Sampling: Methods and Techniques
Triangulation: Concepts
Meta Analysis: Concept

Unit III

Methods of Data Collection: Primary Data
Secondary Data
Data Processing and Analysis

Unit IV

Research Synopsis: Concept, Format and Writing
Report and Thesis Writing, References and Bibliography

SEMESTER-II

SE - C IV: PAPER IV – Project Report Based On Field Work

Maximum Marks = 100 Marks

Project Report = 80 marks

Report Presentation = 20 marks

Credits-4

NOTE:

The emphasis of this course is not to test the theoretical knowledge/accuracy of the candidates but to assess their basic understanding of Social exclusion and Inclusive policies.

Each candidate is required to take up a project based on fieldwork, which will carry 100 marks. Candidates have the liberty to select any topic related to Exclusion issues, violations of minority rights , Inclusive policies etc., and may conduct the research/fieldwork in the geographical area of their choice.

For successful completion of the course, each candidate is required to submit a typed project report on a given date and present the same before the examiner on date and time specified by the department.

SE - C V-Dissertation

Paper V- Dissertation Credits-8

Course Objective-

Dissertation provides an opportunity for the scholars to collect data in field, under the guidance of a faculty supervisor and to familiarize themselves with the methods of research. In the second semester the students should select a research problem in the selected field of specialization and finalize their research design with faculty supervisor. The dissertation shall be submitted by the end of the semester.
