Name of the Course: General Financial Literacy

Name of Course Coordinator(s): Prof. Gulshan Kumar and Prof. Navneet Kaur Arora

Course title and code	Credits	Credit distribution of the course			Eligibility Criteria	Prerequisite of the course
General Financial Literacy		Lectures	Tutorial	Practical/practice	Pass in 12th Standard	NIL
	2	26 Hrs.	0	4 Hrs.

COURSE OBJECTIVE(S):

Basic purpose of this course is to develop and strengthen the idea of financial literacy among learners. Moreover, target is to acquaint the learners with contemporary financial terminology, instruments and personal financial management.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. Learners will understand the idea and importance of financial literacy.
2. The knowledge of common financial terminology and digital jargon of financial world would facilitate learners in the conduct of various day-to-day financial operations in a smooth and rational manner.
3. The knowledge gained out of the course content regarding financial instruments and functioning of financial institutions will provide learners with a strong foundation to gain and maintain personal financial stability.

Note 1: The whole course shall contain 100 marks:

- 25 marks have been assigned to internal assessment including a MCQ test of 15 marks (based on course content) and 10 marks to be given on the basis of class interaction & group discussion (15+10 = 25 Marks in Total).

- A project report (summary) fully based upon practical practice component of this course will be of 25 marks. This report should highlight/express the details of practical experience during visit to nearby branch of any commercial bank or life/general insurance company branch or ATM. It should clearly encapsulate the activities undertaken over there and the practical experience of the student in detail. The student is required to submit one project report out of the four practical activities mentioned under practical practice component of this course. Submission of report is compulsory for successful completion of course (20 marks out of total 25 marks belong to content and 5 marks to the presentation and viva-voce).

- End semester theory examination will be of 50 marks. The question paper shall be divided into 4 sections. Section I to IV of the question paper shall be based upon Unit I to IV of the syllabus as per their respective order in syllabus. All the four sections of the question paper shall have 2 questions of 12.5 marks each. The candidates shall be required to attempt any 1 question from each section. Maximum time allowed to complete the theory examination will be 2 hours.

Note 2: It should be noted that general financial literacy should not be visualized as confined to the students of economics, commerce and finance only. The cognitive understanding of financial glossary, effective personal financial management, rudimentary operation of financial institutions, and e-banking for students from any discipline is quintessential as financially literate learners are better prepared for specific financial roadblocks which dwindle the chances of personal economic distress. Therefore, learners/students from diverse backgrounds can choose to study this course. Course will be conducted and completed through the combination of lectures, interaction, assignments, field work and theoretical/practical tests. Further, resource person(s) can be drawn from the field of commerce, management, economics and finance and related social sciences.
