SEMESTER II

COURSE TITLE: GEOMORPHOLOGY

Course Code: GEO -DSC

Typology of Course: Discipline Specific Core Course (DSC)

Level of Course: 200-299

Total Credits: 4 (Theory 3+ Tutorial 1)

Maximum Marks: 100 (80 Theory + 20 Internal Assessment)

Course Duration: Lectures- 45 Hours; Tutorial- 15 Hours

Evaluation: Maximum Marks: 100 (80 Theory + 20 Internal Assessment)

- Terminal Examination: 80 Marks
- Internal Assessment: 20 Marks
- Examination Time: 3 Hours

COURSE OBJECTIVES: This course aims at developing an understanding of important geomorphic concepts, processes and mechanisms that control the development of landscapes. It intends to enable students to comprehend the interrelationships of processes, landforms, material and time.

COURSE OUTCOMES: At the end of the course the students will be able to:

- Understand the nature, scope and significance of Geomorphology
- Critically understand the various processes and mechanisms that shape the Earth
- Understand the physical manifestations of the various processes on Earth's surface

PEDAGOGY: This course requires understanding of geomorphic forms and processes. It can be achieved through suitable use of audio-visual aids, photographs, maps, and other forms of illustrations. The field visits, observations and interpretation of landforms shall form the basis to achieve the objectives of the course.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PAPER SETTER AND CANDIDATES:

1. Question 1 shall be compulsory question which containing 12 short answer type questions shall be set from the whole syllabus. The student shall attempt any 10 parts in about 25-30 words each. Each part shall carry 2 marks (Total 10x2= 20 marks).
2. A total of eight long questions will be set out of the whole syllabus at least two from each unit. The candidates will attempt four questions selecting one from each unit and each question will carry 15 marks (Total 4x15= 60 marks). These will be in addition to the compulsory question at serial number 1.

3. Internal assessment may include written assignments, snap tests, participation in discussion in the class, term papers, attendance etc.
4. For reappear/improvement candidates(s), who have not been assessed earlier for internal assessment, the marks secured by them in theory paper will be increased proportionally to maximum marks of the paper in lieu of internal assessment. The paper setter must put note (4) in the question paper.

COURSE CONTENTS

Unit I: Foundations to Geomorphology

1. Geomorphology: Nature, Scope and Applications
2. Factors Controlling Landform Development
3. Classification of Earth Movement; Theory of Isostasy

Unit II: Endogenic Processes and Mechanism

4. Diastrophism: Epeirogenic and Orogenic Forces and Associated Features
5. Types and Features associated with Folds and Faults
6. Sudden Movements: Mechanisms, Types, Distribution of Volcano and Earthquake

Unit III: Exogenic Processes and Mechanisms

7 Weathering: Types, processes and Contributing Factors
8. Mass Movement: Classification and Characteristics
9. Erosion and Deposition Processes

Unit IV: Geomorphic Processes, Agents and Dynamics

- Internal Assessment: 10 Marks
- Examination Time: 3 Hours

Objective: The main aim of teaching English to students is to equip them to use language in an efficient and effective manner. The focus of this paper is two- fold: to teach finer nuances of language through an integrated approach; and to teach composition and grammar through activity based, not rule-based approach.

Pedagogy: Assignments and practical work is an essential part of teaching in addition to classroom lectures.

Text prescribed: T. Vijay Kumar,B.T. Seetha, A.V. Suresh Kumar, Y.L. Srinivas, MacMillan , Delhi (2008) English at Work (Selection of Poetry and Prose), Eds.

Section-A (Poetry & Prose)

The examiner will set ten short questions, to be answered in not more than 50-60 words each: There shall be 5 questions each from Poetry and Prose Sections, of the prescribed text, out of which a student shall be required to attempt any five, selecting, atleast 2 from each poetry and prose section. Each question carries 2 marks, (5x2= 10 marks).

Section-B (Composition & grammar)

1. This question shall have internal choice between poetry and prose based on post reading activities suggested in the prescribed text. In this question, the students shall be asked to write a factual or descriptive paragraph, in not more than 300 words, on various subjects given in the exercise, in the prescribed text. For this purpose they may also be asked to expand proverbs and idioms, as indicated in the text. While setting this particular question, special care has to be taken to ensure that ideas for topics are either borrowed directly from the text or are modified suitable so that viable and feasible topics are given to the undergraduate students, which they can easily handle. The idea is to test a student's understanding of the text and /or general life- situations, and also devise an effective method of assessing their ability to express themselves in a simple, lucid and correct language. (15 marks)

2. a This question shall contain 8 incomplete sentences, in which the student will be required to fill in the blanks with correct (4) preposition and (4) articles.(8 marks)

b. This question shall contain 4 pairs of homophones, which the studentswould be required to use in sentences of their own so as to bring out the difference inmeaning. (2 marks)

c. In this question, the students shall be asked to correct 4 sentences or choose the correct sentences out of the given pairs or use the correct form of the verb in the given sentences. (2 marks)

d. This question shall be on comprehension of an unseen passage, with six questions given at the end, based on the passage, vocabulary and other grammatical items. (Each question carries 0.5 marks =3 marks)

Course Duration:Lectures-45 Hours;

Evaluation :Maximum Marks: 75 (60 Theory + 15 Internal Assessment)

- Terminal Examination: 60 Marks
- Internal Assessment: 15 Marks
- Examination Time: 3 Hours

Objectives: This course aims to develop writing skills for academic purposes which will enable students to write essays, reports and term papers. This involves awareness of the academic style of writing, organisation of material, use of grammar and appropriate vocabulary in an academic context. This course will help students to develop strategies such as presenting ideas with a logical progression, collating information from various sources and writing critically about texts.

Pedagogy: In addition to classroom discussion, practical work and assignments will be an integral part of the paper.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PAPER-SETTER AND CANDIDATES:

1. The syllabus has been divided into three units. Question no 1 shall be compulsory and shall have 10 short answer type questions out of which 7 have to be answered in about 25 to 30 words each i.e. 3 mark for each. (7x3=21). Rest of the paper shall contain 3 units. Each unit shall have two long questions and the candidate shall be given internal choice of attempting one question from each unit I-III. Each question will carry 13 marks.

2. The paper setter would avoid repetition between different type of questions within one question paper.

Unit I

Reading essays, papers or extracts from some journals and books to familiarize students with:

Text Organisation, such as identifying main ideas and supporting ideas in a text, general and specific statements, exemplification, linear and circular structures. Students will look critically at some texts to distinguish fact and opinion, facetious arguments, and make inferences.

Identifying different stages of an academic writing task: definition, details required to build an argument/develop an idea, which includes the gathering of source material, references and quotations; generalization from data, making conclusions.

Unit II

Practicising summarizing, and expansion skill: to condense a longer text into a short one, or developing a short text of a few sentences into a longer, detailed piece.

Other skills: comparing and classifying facts, using relevant examples.

Unit III

Developing language: Correcting and revising sentences with attention to subject-verb agreement, tenses, prepositions, articles, passive forms, cohesive features such as linkers, sentence connection. Vocabulary development through use of Academic Word List (Coxhead 2000, available on the internet) in academic discourse,
