Name of the Course: Indian Knowledge System
Title of the Paper: The Vedas
(The Paper can be opted in any Semester)

Credits:2
Course Code: IKS- VAC -101
Lectures per week: 2
Maximum Marks:50 marks
Theory:45 marks
Internal Assessment: 05 marks
Time: 3 hours

Learning Objective: The aim of the course is to create general awareness with regard to the Vedas and its concerns and fundamental concepts significant to human inquiry and life. The pursuit of human knowledge is deeply connected to an Identity that is individual as well as collective in its nature and hence the aim is also to introduce the traces of the Vedic Culture through the philosophical ideas Vedas propound

Learning Outcome: The student shall learn the concept of Knowledge and its kinds that Vedas propound. The student shall also understand the different sections of the Veda highlighting different concerns and subject matter. The course shall also help the student to learn some of the basic ideas pertaining to kind of life humans must aspire by undergoing some of the pertinent stories and philosophical accounts available in the Vedas

Pedagogy: The course can be taught in English, Hindi and keeping the context of regional language in concern. The teacher can use methods of storytelling, discussions and moral narratives from the Indian Cultural paradigm exhibiting the value-system of Indian ethos and culture. The Lectures to be delivered shall be two per week in the course.

Instructions for the Paper Setter and Candidate:

1. The Syllabus shall be of 50 marks bifurcating into 45 marks for theory and 5 marks for the internal assessment.
2. The theory of 45 marks shall be further divided into three sections- Unit-I, Unit-II and Unit-III.
3. The Paper setter shall set four questions carrying 7.5 marks each from unit-I and Unit-II each providing the choice of opting any two questions from Unit-I and Unit-II each.
4. Unit-III shall be compulsory consisting Eight questions out of which the candidate is to attempt any Six questions consisting of 2.5 marks each.
5. For the private candidates, who have not been assessed earlier for the internal assessment; the marks secured by them in theory paper will be proportionately be increased in the theory paper in lieu of the internal assessment

Content of the Course

Unit-I

Introduction to the Vedas: Definition, Meaning, Division into Mantra, Brahmana, Aranyaka and Upanishad

Concept of Apaurusheya

Concept of Vedanga

Concept of Man, Active Life(Yajna) and Self-Introspection

Unit-II

Significance of Prakriti(Nature) ,Symbolism and Anthropomorphism: Mother Earth, Rivers(Saraswati and Shatudri), Animals(Cow, horse and Bull) and Birds(Kites and Swan)

Story Literature of the Vedas: Shyavasva, Shunahshepa, Dirghatamas

Recommended Readings:

1. Dr.C Kunhan Raja,1957, The Vedas; Waltair, Andhra University Series no.60
2. N.K Devraj, 1975, Bharatiya Darshan Shastra, Chapter 2, Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh Hindi Granth Academy
3. Govind Chandra Pandey, 2001 1st ed; Vaidik Sanskriti(Chapter 4) Allabhabad, Lokabharti
4. S. Venkateshvara, 1927, Indian Culture Through the Ages Vol.I,Delhi, Gian Publishing House, Delhi, 1927
5. M.M Gopinath Kaviraj, 1963, Bharatiya Sanskriti Aur Sadhna Vol.1;Patna, Bihar Rashtrabhasha. Parishad, Patna,
6. Gaya Charan Tripathii, 1982, Vaidik Devata-Udbhav Aur Vikas, Varanasi, Bhartiya Vidya Prakashan
7. Bharat Ratna Dr,P.V Kane; 2023 -8th ed, Dharmashastra Ka Itihas, Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh Hindi Sansthan

Name of the Course: Indian Knowledge System
Title of the Paper: Ideals in Ramayana
(The paper can be opted in any of the Semester)

Credits:2
Course Code: IKS- VAC -102
Lectures per week: 2
Maximum Marks:50 marks
Theory:45 marks
Internal Assessment: 05 marks
Time: 3 hours

Learning Objective: The aim of the course is to familiarize the student with the fundamental value system propounded by Ramayana as an academic text and introduce ideals and values laid by it. The aim is to create awareness with regard to the concept and kinds of Virtue by acknowledging the strength of virtuous conduct and being righteous in ones character and conduct

Learning Outcome: The student shall be able to learn the significance of developing an empathetic attitude towards all forms of beings and life around. The student shall also learn the different necessary values required as an individual and a part of a social group. The text Ramayana also has subtle artistic and aesthetic components too that shall be highlighted for a holistic understanding of the text.

Pedagogy: The course can be taught in English, Hindi and keeping the context of regional language in concern. The teacher can use methods of storytelling, discussions and moral narratives from the Indian Cultural paradigm exhibiting the value-system of Indian ethos and culture. The Lectures to be delivered shall be two per week in the course.

Instructions for the Paper Setter and Candidate:

1. The Syllabus shall be of 50 marks bifurcating into 45 marks for theory and 5 marks for the internal assessment.
2. The theory of 45 marks shall be further divided into three sections- Unit-I, Unit-II and Unit-III.
3. The Paper setter shall set four questions carrying 7.5 marks each from unit-I and Unit-II each providing the choice of opting any two questions from Unit-I and Unit-II each.
4. Unit-III shall be compulsory consisting Eight questions out of which the candidate is to attempt any Six questions consisting of 2.5 marks each.
5. For the private candidates, who have not been assessed earlier for the internal assessment; the marks secured by them in theory paper will be proportionately be increased in the theory paper in lieu of the internal assessment

Content of the Course

Unit-I

- Introduction to the Ramayana as India's Representative Poem; Valmiki's Vision of Life and the Poem
- Characteristics of the Rama by Valmiki- Shilavriddha, Jnanavriddha, Dharmajna, Karunamayi, Satyavrati
- Ideals of Education(Balakanda-XVIII,26-28, 35-37; Ayodhyakanda, I,26,II,36,III,20,27) and Individual Life(Ayodhyakanda-CIX,27,28,31,36; AyodhyakanadaXXI,35,43 Kishkindhakanda-XVIII,15)

Unit-II

- Ideals of Family life (Arynyakanda,XIII,5,6;Ayodhyakanada-XI.103;XXIV,21,25,26,29;XXXIX,16,17)and Social Life(AyodhyakanadLXXXII,32,CVI,21;SundarakandaXXXV,11,Yuddhakanada, CXXVIII,32)
- Economic and Political Ideals(yuddhakanada,LXIII,14,15,16;Kishkindha kanadaXXIX,6)
- Ramayana as a Masterpiece of Art and Literature
- Valmiki's Spiritual Ideals(Uttarakanda-XX,7-14;XXi.23)

Recommended Readings

1. Dewan Bahadur K.S Ramaswami Shastri, 1944, Studies in Ramayana; Baroda, Dept of Education, Baroda State, Kirti Mandir Lecture Series no.IX, Baroda State
2. R.K Narayana; 1972; The Ramayana, Penguin Books
3Neelesh Kulkarni and Vikrant Pande; 2021 In The Footsteps of Rama,, Harper Collins
4. Valmiki Ramayana, PDF downloadable, Internet Archive

Name of the Course: Indian Knowledge System
Title of the Paper: Philosophy of the Upanishads
(The paper can be opted in any Semester)

Credits:2
Course Code: IKS- VAC -103
Lectures per week: 2
Maximum Marks:50 marks
Theory:45 marks
Internal Assessment: 05 marks
Time: 3 hours

Learning Objective: The aim of the course shall be able
To understand the content of the Upanishads as a part of the Vedas
To learn some of the fundamental questions related to Self-Realisation and Self-Transformation
To interpret the symbolism and latent meaning in the stories of the Upanishads
Learning Outcome: The student shall learn
The basics of the Vedic Culture and Upanishads as part of the Veda
The Intuitive teachings and fundamental questions of the Upanishads
A discourse about the source of the Universe and relation of Self to it
The symbolism and interconnectivity of human existence with the cosmos

Pedagogy: The course can be taught in English, Hindi and keeping the context of regional language in concern. The teacher can use methods of storytelling, discussions and moral narratives from the Indian Cultural paradigm exhibiting the value-system of Indian ethos and culture. The Lectures to be delivered shall be two per week in the course.

Instructions for the Paper Setter and Candidate:
1. The Syllabus shall be of 50 marks bifurcating into 45 marks for theory and 5 marks for the internal assessment.
2. The theory of 45 marks shall be further divided into three sections- Unit-I, Unit-II and Unit-III.
3. The Paper setter shall set four questions carrying 7.5 marks each from unit-I and Unit-II each providing the choice of opting any two questions from Unit-I and Unit-II each.
4. Unit-III shall be compulsory consisting Eight questions out of which the candidate is to attempt any Six questions consisting of 2.5 marks each.
5. For the private candidates, who have not been assessed earlier for the internal assessment; the marks secured by them in theory paper will be proportionately be increased in the theory paper in lieu of the internal assessment

Course of Content

Unit-I

- Introduction to the Vedic Literature- kinds of Vedas and sections
- Definition, Meaning and Concerns of Upanishads
- Cosmology in the Upanishads: Concept of Jagat
- Metaphysical Ideas of the Upanishads: Brahman and Atman

Unit-II

- Self- as Annamaya, Pranamaya, Manomaya, Vijnanamaya and Anandamaya
- Stages of Self as Jagrati, Svapna, Sushupti and Turiya
- Philosophical Methods : Sutra, Nirukta, Akhyayika, Upamana, Shastrartha, Sanshleshnatamka, Atmasamlapa, Arundhati Nayay
- Symbolism in the Upanishads: Yama-Nachiketa Samvada

Recommended Readings

1. N.K Devraj; 1975 Bhartiy; Darshan Shastra; Dr.N.K Devraj, Chapter 2, Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh Hindi Granth Academy
2. Govind Chandra Pandey, 2001, Vaidik Sanskriti(1st ed.Chapter 4) Allahabad, Lokabharti
3. M.M Gopinath Kaviraj, 1963, Bharatiya Sanskriti Aur Sadhna; Vol.I, Patna, Bihar Rashtrabhasha Parishad
4. Gaya Charan Tripathi, 1982; Vaidik Devata-Udbhav Aur Vikas-Gaya Charan Tripathi,Varanasi, Bhartiya Vidya Prakashan,
5. Bharat Ratna Dr,P.V Kane,2024,Dharmashastra a Itihas, Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh Hindi Sansthan
6. Bharat Ratna Dr,P.V Kane, 2023; Dharmashastra Ka Itihas (Vol.5, Chapter 16), Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh Hindi Sansthan

Name of the Course: Indian Knowledge System
Title of the Paper: Bhagavad Gita and Karma-Yoga
(The Paper can be opted in any Semester)

Credits:2
Course Code: IKS- VAC -104
Lectures per week: 2
Maximum Marks:50 marks
Theory:45 marks
Internal Assessment: 05 marks
Time: 3 hours

Learning Objective: The objective of the course is to familiarise the student with the fundamental philosophy of Bhagavad Gita and its importance in life. The aim is also to create awareness about the significance of steadfastness of mind and mental tendencies during the times of crisis and dilemmas. The purpose of the course is to emphasise on the necessity of Self-Culture and Self-discipline by cultivating a balanced attitude.

Learning Outcome: The student shall be able to recognise the significance of Transcendental Truth and Reality as the final question of human existence. The student shall also learn some fundamental ideas-Self, Dharma, Karma, Anasakti, Bhakti and Jnana, pertinent to Indian Culture and Value system.

Pedagogy: The course can be taught in English, Hindi and keeping the context of regional language in concern. The teacher can use methods of storytelling, discussions and moral narratives from the Indian Cultural paradigm exhibiting the value-system of Indian ethos and culture. The Lectures to be delivered shall be two per week in the course.

Instructions for the Paper Setter and Candidate:

1. The Syllabus shall be of 50 marks bifurcating into 45 marks for theory and 5 marks for the internal assessment.
2. The theory of 45 marks shall be further divided into three sections- Unit-I, Unit-II and Unit-III.
3. The Paper setter shall set four questions carrying 7.5 marks each from unit-I and Unit-II each providing the choice of opting any two questions from Unit-I and Unit-II each.
4. Unit-III shall be compulsory consisting Eight questions out of which the candidate is to attempt any Six questions consisting of 2.5 marks each.
5. For the private candidates, who have not been assessed earlier for the internal assessment; the marks secured by them in theory paper will be proportionately be increased in the theory paper in lieu of the internal assessment

Content of the Course

Unit-I

- Brief Introduction to the contents of the Bhagavad Gita and Arjuna's Dilemma (Chapter 1)
- Emotional conflicts and ethical issues.Transcendental Knowledge,Sankhya yoga; Nature of soul; Concepts of Dharma and Karma; Significance of detached action, Concept of Sthitaprajna (Chapter 2)
- Path of Devotion, Karma Yoga; Duty and righteousness; The balance of action and inaction, Concept of Detachment in Action (Chapter 3 and 4)

Unit-II

- Approaching the Ultimate Truth; Knowledge and renunciation; Concepts of Yajna and selfless action; Jnana yoga vs. Bhakti yoga(Chapter 5)
- The Science of Self-Realization; Dhyana Yoga; Practices and principles of meditation; Achieving spiritual equilibrium(Chapter 6)

Recommended Readings

1.The Bhagavad Gita, Gita Press, Gorakhpur, (Downloadable PDF, Internet Archive)
2 S. N Dasgupta ,1973,.Bharatiya Darshan Ka Itihasa, Vol.2, Jaipur, Rajasthan Hindi Granth Academy
3. Dasgupta, S.N., 1930 Yoga Philosophy in Relation to other system of Indian Thought, Calcutta, University of Calcutta.
4. Dasgupta, S.N.,1922, History of Indian Philosophy, Vol.1, Cambridge
5. M. Hiriyana 1993, Outlines of Indian Philosophy, Delhi,Motilal Banarsidass Publishers
6. Murty, K. Satchidanada, 1959,Revelation and Reason in AdvaitaVedanta, London, Asia Publishing House
7. Daya Krishna, 2000, Bhakti- A Contemporary Discussion, Mukund Lath and Francine E.Krishna, New Delhi, Council Of Philosophical Research

Name of the Course: Indian Knowledge System
Title of the Paper: Fundamentals of Indian Aesthetics
(The paper can be opted in any Semester)

Credits:2
Course Code: IKS- VAC -105
Lectures per week: 2
Maximum Marks:50 marks
Theory:45 marks
Internal Assessment: 05 marks
Time: 3 hours

Learning Objective: The purpose of the course is to introduce the student with the primary ideas prevalent in the field of Indian Art and Aesthetics, some of the unique and peculiar theories as that of Rasa. The aim is also to create an awareness with regard to an approach to the Reality through Art in the Indian Culture

Learning Outcome: The student shall be able to understand some of the pertinent Aesthetic Ideas,such as Kavya, Natya, Rasa,Bhava etc and their role in human life and thought. The student shall be empowered by understanding the role of Sahradayta in perceiving life from a holistic perspective. The student shall also be able to understand the significance of Language and its different forms, usage as a limitation yet as the only medium to understand some of the core concerns of Human Existence

Pedagogy: The course can be taught in English, Hindi and keeping the context of regional language in concern. The teacher can use methods of storytelling, discussions and moral narratives from the Indian Cultural paradigm exhibiting the value-system of Indian ethos and culture. The Lectures to be delivered shall be two per week in the course.

Instructions for the Paper Setter and Candidate:

1. The Syllabus shall be of 50 marks bifurcating into 45 marks for theory and 5 marks for the internal assessment.
2. The theory of 45 marks shall be further divided into three sections- Unit-I, Unit-II and Unit-III.
3. The Paper setter shall set four questions carrying 7.5 marks each from unit-I and Unit-II each providing the choice of opting any two questions from Unit-I and Unit-II each.
4. Unit-III shall be compulsory consisting Eight questions out of which the candidate is to attempt any Six questions consisting of 2.5 marks each.
5. For the private candidates, who have not been assessed earlier for the internal assessment; the marks secured by them in theory paper will be proportionately be increased in the theory paper in lieu of the internal assessment

Content of the Course

Unit-I

- Definition, Meaning, Nature and Purpose of Art; Place of Art in Life and Thought
- Difference between Art and Skill; Concept of Creativity in Art; Art as Process and as Product
- Nature of Aesthetic Experience , Approach to Reality and Role of Shradayata(Empathy)
- Classification of Art as Kavya(Poetics) and Natya(Drama)
- Concept of Manglacharana and Bharatvakya

Unit-II

- Definition, Nature and Concept of Bhava and Rasa and its Kinds
- Role of Language and Meaning in Kavya(Poetics); Different kinds of Meaning, Abhidha(Literal Meaning), Lakshna(Secondary Meaning) and Vyanjana(Suggestive Meaning)

Recommended Readings

1. Nihararanjan Ray, 1974; An Approach to Indian Art; Niharranjan Ray, Chandigarh, Publication Bureau Panjab University
2. Ananad Coormarswamy, 1956; Transformation of Nature in Art; Ananda Commarswamy,New York, Dover
3. 3.Kanti Chandra Pandey, 1952 Comparative Aesthetics, Kantichandra Pandey, Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series Office
4. 4.The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Indian Aesthetics and the Philosophy of Art Arindam Chakrabarti (PDF available)
5. V.Raghvan, 1975; The Number of Rasas; Madras, The Adyar Library series Vol.23, The Adyar Library and Research Centre
6. . A.K Warder; 1989(Reprint), Indian Kavya Literature, A.K Warder, Delhi, Motilal Banarsidas
7. . I.Shekhar, 1960, Sanskrit Drama: Its Origin and Decline; I.Shekhar, Netherlands,Leiden, E.J. Brill, Netherlands

Name of the Course: Indian Knowledge System

Title of the Paper:Ideals in Indian Political Philosophy

(The Paper can be opted in any Semester)

Credits:2
Course Code: IKS- VAC -106
Lectures per week: 2
Maximum Marks:50 marks
Theory:45 marks
Internal Assessment: 05 marks
Time: 3 hours

Learning Objective:The aim of the course is to introduce to the fundamental ideas, concepts and theories of Indian Political Philosophy and enabling the students to identify the valid concerns and problems of Administration and the System.

Learning Outcomes: The student shall learn different components of State as found in Indian Traditional Texts and the role of an individual towards the maintenance of order and harmony of the State and its decorum. The student shall also understand the concept of Justice and its deliverance and its different sources. The student shall also be able to understand the purpose of life and its interconnection with a participatory and responsible behaviour towards the State and Society

Pedagogy: The course can be taught in English, Hindi and keeping the context of regional language in concern. The teacher can use methods of storytelling, discussions and moral narratives from the Indian Cultural paradigm exhibiting the value-system of Indian ethos and culture. The Lectures to be delivered shall be two per week in the course.

Instructions for the Paper Setter and Candidate:

1. The Syllabus shall be of 50 marks bifurcating into 45 marks for theory and 5 marks for the internal assessment.
2. The theory of 45 marks shall be further divided into three sections- Unit-I, Unit-II and Unit-III.
3. The Paper setter shall set four questions carrying 7.5 marks each from unit-I and Unit-II each providing the choice of opting any two questions from Unit-I and Unit-II each.
4. Unit-III shall be compulsory consisting Eight questions out of which the candidate is to attempt any Six questions consisting of 2.5 marks each.

5. For the private candidates, who have not been assessed earlier for the internal assessment; the marks secured by them in theory paper will be proportionately be increased in the theory paper in lieu of the internal assessment

Unit-I

- Introduction to the concept of Raja Vidya and Raja Dharma : Definition, Nature, Scope and Methods- Traditional and Modern Approach.
- Concept and nature of Rajya (State): Dharma*śā*stra and Artha*śā*tra; Theories of origin of State, kinds of Administration and components of State -Saptang Theory; Theory of Rashtra
- Concept of kingship : Duties and Responsibilities of King, coronation and its social and Philosophical foundations.

Unit – II

- Political Ideas: Karma Sv*ā*tantrya, theory of Rights on the basis of Karma, Samatva, Ny*ā*ya (Justice) Jana-Tantra (Sabha, Samiti, Vidatha-Gana-Jana). Citizenship.
- Political Ideology: Order of Dharma, Yoga-Kshema (Welfare), Purush*ā*rtha (objectives of human life), Varn*āś*rama (st*ā*ges of human life)
- Indian Socio- Political thought :- Classical Political thought, Manu, Kautilya, *ś*ukra, Bhishma.
- Indian Political Values : Rama-Bharat Dialogue, Bhishma-Yudhisthira Dialogue, Ashtavakra-Janaka Dialogue

Recommended Readings

1. Bharat Ratna Dr,P.V Kane, 5th Ed. 2024, Dharmashastra Ka Itihas (Vol.2, Chapter 16), Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh Hindi Sanstha
2. Pandey, S.L.,1970, Samaj Darshana ki ek Pranali, Allahabad
3. J.S. Srivastava, Samaj Darshan ki Bhumika,Viswavidyalaya Prakasan,Varanasi, 2002
4. Singh, B.N, Samaj Darshan Evam Rajaniti Darshan, Asha Prakashan,Varanasi.
5. Shivkumar Mishra, 2000, Darshan, Sahity Aur Samaj, New Delhi,Vani Prakashan
6. Daya Krishna, 1978; Social Philosophy: Past and Future; Simla, Indian Institute of Advanced Studies